About the Poet

Special Thanks

These words of love are dedicated to all the loving friends and relatives that I have come to know during my lifespan.

First of all, I want to say thanks to Jeff, the Moderator of the Romantic Round Table, a Yahoo Group that got me started writing poems. It is a place where you can express your most inner feelings about love and the experiences we all go through.

Most of all I want to thank Mr. Aubry Padmore, the one behind this entire project. I want to thank you for inspiring me to reach for the skies, for bringing something out of me that I never felt that I had inside. To you my motivator, a friend, an inspiration, may your work continue to shine, and quoting from your words "gratification comes from seeing people live better lives." We should always learn to share and care, love one another and give God thanks.

And to the most important player in this whole project, Global Village Book Publishing. Without the publisher there is no book. Many thanks to the management and staff.

1 - Words of Love

A Three-fold Heart

A compassionate heart... a heart which holds no barriers or obstructions makes no judgments or threats and treats everyone as equal.

A creative heart...
a heart which thrives on your light
the light which is given to all within your path helping them find their way through life's journeys.

A loving heart...
a heart that knows no hate, but only kindred love
it touches into the far places within our souls making each and every one of us shine.

Turning Up the Heat

They say God works in mysterious ways
He lets us meet good people along the way.
Though our paths have not yet crossed
In many ways you make my life complete.

A simple hello, a note to touch base
Lending an ear, just to hear me complain.
Whispering sweet nothings, to soothe my feelings
You've done it all and they mean everything.

So much wisdom, so much maturity
Based on the way you converse intellectually.
So much kindness, so much love
Based on time you willingly give up.

If I forget someday and never had the chance
Let me say thank you now for the present time.

2 - Words of Love

If I forget to tell you then how wonderful you are
Let me remind you now and make you smile.

For you are wonderful and truly a blessing
Amidst the crazy world we both live in.
You are like the lone shining star
That brightens my gloomy darkened sky...

Tell Someone How You Feel

I love the feelings of the butterflies
And looking right into your eyes
The things I can and cannot see
The feelings of you right next to me.

The feelings of my heart beating like this Wondering what it would be like if we would kiss
The feelings that I get when I talk to you
And the sweetest things you say and do.

I never want this feeling to end
I love knowing that I have you for a friend
Maybe someday we will be together
Wanting it to last forever.

Speak of Love

Speak the name of love for it has been spoken before
a hundred, a thousand nay, a million times yet it retains its magic, its joy, its fondest hope, its most vivid dream, lovers embrace love's sweetest union.
